HONORING THE MEMORY OF
JUDGE JAMES E. MIES

HON. THADDEUS G. MCCOTTER

OF MICHIGAN
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Thursday, September 24, 2009

Mr. MCCOTTER. Madam Speaker, today I rise to honor the extraordinary life of Judge James E. Mies, a retired Wayne Circuit Court judge, who passed away Monday at the age of 81.

For almost 25 years, Judge Mies pursued truth and impartiality behind the bench and was well-regarded both as a lawyer and a judge. Judge Mies was a 1951 graduate of the University of Detroit law school and served in the Livonia law firm of Brashear and Brashear. In 1969, he was elected a district judge in Livonia. In 1981, Governor William Milliken named Judge Mies to the Wayne Circuit Court, where he served until his retirement in 1993.

Judge Mies was perhaps best known for his handling of Wayne County's numerous asbestos lawsuits. Colleagues remembered him as, first and foremost, a decent man whose rulings were meticulously thought out. Outside the courtroom, Judge Mies was active in the Optimists, the Michigan Cancer Foundation and other civic organizations and in 1993, the Livonia City Council named a park in his honor.

On September 21, 2009, Judge Mies passed away after a lengthy illness. A beloved husband and father, he is survived by his wife of 59 years, Mary Patricia, his sons Edward, James, Gerald and Michael, his daughters Jean and Catherine (Diamond), as well as thirteen grandchildren and two great-grandchildren. He is predeceased by his son Thomas. The citizens of Wayne County were privileged to have been served by this erudite judge for a quarter of a century.

Madam Speaker, Judge Mies is remembered as a philanthropist, mentor, and friend. As we bid him farewell, I ask my colleagues to join me in mourning his passing and honoring the contributions he made to society.

INTRODUCING A RESOLUTION EX-PRESSING APPRECIATION TO BERMUDA FOR ACCEPTING FOUR DETAINEES RELEASED FROM GUANTANAMO BAY, CUBA

HON. ALCEE L. HASTINGS

OF FLORIDA
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Thursday, September 24, 2009

Mr. HASTINGS of Florida. Madam Speaker, I rise to introduce a resolution expressing appreciation to the nation of Bermuda for accepting four detainees from Guantanamo Bay, Cuba. These four men—Chinese Uighurs—had been cleared by the federal government for release but were unable to be sent to their home country of China, for fear for their safety and in compliance with international human rights law.

The United States has been working with other countries to effect a safe and efficient process for resettling detainees cleared of wrongdoing and scheduled for release. This is a complicated and difficult process but has resulted in approximately 15 resettled detainees since President Obama took office. Four of those went to Bermuda. Dozens more have been cleared for release but have not yet been transferred to a third-party nation.

In a May 2009, visit to the White House, Premier Ewart Brown of Bermuda generously offered to assist the United States in relocating released detainees from the detention facility at Guantanamo. One month later the four Uighurs were transported to Bermuda, where they currently receive government assistance to integrate into the surrounding community, including work at a local golf course.

Madam Speaker, I appreciate Bermuda—our friend and ally—assisting us in the effort to resolve the complex problem of resettling detainees cleared for release. The fact of the matter is that the Bush administration's reckless approach to establishing an extrajudicial system at Guantanamo has left us grappling with how to humanely and effectively resettle detainees who pose no threat to our national security. To that end we owe the people of Bermuda sincere thanks for taking on the responsibility of ensuring the rights and well-being of these four released detainees, who have been cleared of any wrongdoing. Bermuda and the United States have set a positive example for the safe, efficient, and humane process of releasing former detainees.
